

Infrastructure Types

Name	Example	Rules
Pedestrian Zone	 Image source: https://qimby.net/image/xenK	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Pedestrians have priority.- Cycling is permitted (in this dataset; zones where cycling is not permitted are classified as “Sidewalk (walk bicycles only)”).
Traffic-calmed Street	 Image source: https://qimby.net/image/Ji0Q	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Shared use by pedestrians, cyclists, and motor vehicles.- Walking speed limit (7 km/h).- Pedestrians have priority.
Sidewalk (walk Bicycles only)	 Image source: https://qimby.net/image/dBpN	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Bicycle riding is prohibited.- Walking bicycles is permitted.
Sidewalk (Bicycles allowed)	 Image source: Own photo (Gabriel Wilkes)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Cyclists are allowed to use the sidewalk.- Pedestrians have priority.

Name	Example	- Rules
Shared-use Path		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Common path for both cyclists and pedestrians. - Equal usage rights.
Bicycle Path (off-street)		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Dedicated path for cyclists. - Physically separated from the street.
Bicycle Lane (on-street, marked)		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Dedicated lane for cyclists on the roadway. - May have physical elements to separate from motorized traffic.
Advisory Bicycle lane		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Marked lane for cyclists. - May be used by motorized traffic if necessary.

Name	Example	Rules
Bicycle Street	 Image source: https://qimby.net/image/47yj	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Cyclists have priority, but motorized traffic is allowed in most cases. - Speed limit of 30 km/h.
Farm Road	 Image source: https://qimby.net/image/vVHd	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Mixed use rural road, mainly for agricultural vehicles, pedestrians and cyclists.
Shared Roadway (30km/h)	 Image source: https://qimby.net/image/Ccrs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Cyclists ride on the carriageway, together with motorized traffic. - Speed limit of 30 km/h.
Shared Roadway (50km/h)	 Image source: Own photo (Gabriel Wilkes)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Cyclists ride on the carriageway, together with motorized traffic. - Speed limit of 50 km/h.